

Lumsden & McCormick 2009 Exempt Organizations Conference

Lumsden & McCormick is pleased to announce that our annual Exempt Organizations Conference will be held on Thursday, November 12, 2009 from 8 am – 3:30 pm at the Buffalo Niagara Marriott. The annual Conference is "a great way for organizations and individuals from the exempt community to network and share ideas as well as gain an expanded knowledge to operate more efficiently," said Donna M. Gonser, CPA, Partner serving nonprofit organizations.

The Conference presentations and speakers include

Sales Tax Update

Mark S. Klein, Esq.; Hodgson Russ LLP

Catch Me if You Can - Are Fraudulent Activities Happening in your Organization?

Brian J. Mich, JD, BDO Consulting, New York, NY

Social Networking Isn't Just For Socializing! - Maximizing Networking and Marketing Opportunities in the Social Media World

Marc Adler, Flynn & Friends
Joost Vles, Moog

Reforming Government and Renewing Community

Kevin Gaughan

Developing New Revenue Streams – What is Social Enterprise? Analysis and Panel Discussion

John D. Craik, Baker Victory Services
Kathleen Granchelli & Suzanne Tomkins, YWCA of Niagara
Stanton Hudson, Buffalo & Erie County Public Library
Paul T. Hogan, John R. Oishei Foundation
Stephanie Simeon, Heart of the City Neighborhoods

A complete Conference invitation detailing the topics to be presented is available at www.lumsdencpa.com/5-7.asp. For more information contact Maria Gambacorta at mgambacorta@lumsdencpa.com or at 716-856-3300.