

SAVE THE DATE

as published September 22, 2010

Lumsden & McCormick is pleased to announce our Educational Conferences coming this Fall. Seminar topics include retirement planning, health care reform, IFRS, estate planning, the WNY economy, IRS exempt organizations tax updates and many others. To learn more select 'full article'.

Lumsden & McCormick Financial Services, LLC

Sustainable Income for Life: Achieving Your Ideal Vision of Retirement

Wednesday, October 6, 2010

The Buffalo Club, 388 Delaware Ave., Buffalo

3:00 – 3:30 pm – Registration

3:30 – 5:00 pm – Discussion of Sustainable Income Solutions™

5:00 – 6:00 pm – Cocktail Reception

Lumsden & McCormick, LLP CPA

Join Stephen T. LoVullo, CPA on November 1 at Success 2011 – Be Prepared for Upcoming Changes seminar where Steve will discuss what every business owner and accounting executive needs to know about the proposed International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

Commercial Businesses Seminar

Success 2011 – Be Prepared for Upcoming Changes

November 1, 2010; 12 noon - 5 pm

Millennium Hotel, Walden Ave. in Cheektowaga

CPE credit hours: 4.0

Topics:

1. Health Care Reform
2. International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS)
3. Estate Planning
4. Update on the Economy in WNY

A light lunch will be served at 12 noon, followed by the seminar which will run from 1:00 – 5:00 pm with cocktails to follow.

Exempt Organizations Conference

December 2, 2010, 8 am - 4 pm

Buffalo Niagara Marriott

CPE Credit hours: 6.0 anticipated

Conference Agenda to be announced shortly.

To learn more or to register for any of our free Educational Seminars contact Maria Gambacorta at mgambacorta@lumsden CPA.com or 716-856-3300.