

Dayton Elected to the Board of Directors of the SPCA Serving Erie County
As published April 15, 2009

We are pleased to announce that Sara M. Dayton, CPA has been elected to the Board of Directors of the SPCA Serving Erie County. She will also serve as a member of the SPCA Finance Committee. Sara has combined her love and passion for animals with her vast accounting and financial knowledge whereby serving as an asset to the SPCA. We are proud to have Sara represent Lumsden & McCormick while serving the nonprofit community in Western New York. Sara is pictured here with her best friend Lovey.

As a principal in our auditing and accounting department, Sara has over 10 years experience in services to governments, nonprofits, and commercial businesses. She specializes in counties, school districts, and commercial audits and is involved in the Firm's government niche. Sara is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants (NYSSCPA), the NYSSCPA Public Schools Accounting Committee, the Association of School Business Officials, the advisory council of the Western Chapter of the Government Finance Officers' Association, and is active in the New York State Association of Counties. She graduated from the State University of New York at Geneseo where she obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting.

The SPCA serving Erie County cares for approximately 20,000 animals each year through programs that include adoptions; admissions; animal rescues; animal emergency transports; stray lost and found services; animal cruelty investigations and seizures; care for wildlife, reptiles, exotics, and farm animals; and much more. Click SPCA Serving Erie County to learn more.