This course will include: a brief update on general Family Law followed by an in-depth look at the how the current economy effects economic valuations. The program will detail how to review and analyze documentation showing a deteriorating financial situation. The program will also discuss the analysis of business trends and whether a party's lifestyle seems to indicate "divorce planning" or a real decline in business value.

For Information on how to register contact Paul Herlan at pherlan@briscon.com or contact the The Brooklyn Bar Association at 718-624-0675. There is a $60 fee for advanced registration including CLE credit.

Brisbane Consulting Group, LLC was formed in 1995 and is a subsidiary of Lumsden & McCormick, LLP to meet the ever growing demand for business valuation and forensic accounting services. Brisbane Consulting Group specializes in the valuation of closely held businesses, investigative accounting and litigation support services. We have grown to become the largest business valuation firm in Western New York and expanded our reach in 2000 with the opening of a satellite office in Garden City, New York.

Lou Cercone is Lou is the Managing Director of Brisbane Consulting Group in charge of business valuations, forensic accounting, and litigation support services. He has extensive valuation experience and has served as a financial consultant and expert to attorneys in the economic aspects of matrimonial dissolution. He has been engaged in several forensic accounting cases and has served the judiciary as a court appointed expert and receiver for financially troubled companies. He can be reached at 716-856-3428 or via email at lcercone@briscon.com.
