

Top 100 Accounting Firm to Work For

As published September 22, 2010

Lumsden & McCormick, LLP is pleased to announce that it has been named one of the 2010 Top 100 Best Accounting Firms to Work For by Accounting Today and Best Companies Group. The top firms, including Lumsden & McCormick, will be honored at an awards luncheon on November 17, 2010 during Accounting Today's Growth & Profitability Summit in Las Vegas, Nevada.

"Being named to this prestigious list is a tremendous honor," said John Oehler, CPA, Managing Partner. "And while the firm receives the recognition, it really belongs to every member of our firm. It's both a strong endorsement and reflection of our employees' efforts at coaching, mentoring, training, communication and collaboration."

Over 400 firms across the U.S. participated in the 2010 Top 100 Best Firms program, created to identify, recognize, and honor the best places of employment in the accounting profession. Consisting of a two-part survey process, Lumsden & McCormick first submitted a comprehensive summary of its workplace policies, practices, philosophy, systems and demographics. The second part involved an employee engagement survey measuring the employee experience. The combined scores determined the top companies and the final ranking.

"This distinction is especially meaningful because – in addition to this being our first time ever participating in the Best Accounting Firms program - we have been measured solely against our peers in public accounting, versus other business entities," added Eileen Connor-Costilow, Director of Human Resources. Accounting Today's program, she notes, "is the standard setter when it comes to identifying accounting firms that are succeeding at creating and growing their most important competitive advantage - their people."

"Our people are committed to continuous learning and development and they really understand the CPA profession," said Oehler. "They build genuine relationships among themselves, participate in firm sponsored and community events, and everyday they live the firm's core values. Together, they've made Lumsden & McCormick a 'Top 100' firm with skilled professionals providing excellent service to our clients."
