

Welcome New Employees

as published August 19, 2009

Lumsden & McCormick is pleased to announce the addition of 3 new employees to our auditing and accounting team... Michael S. Evancho, Sarah McLaughlin and Jennifer Steele. They will be responsible for auditing and accounting services to commercial businesses and exempt organizations.

Mike Evancho is a graduate of Canisius College (May 2009) where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting and Finance. Mike has prior experience working as an audit intern with Computer Task Group. He resides in Buffalo.

Sarah McLaughlin graduated from Daemen College in May 2009 earning a Masters of Science degree in Professional Accounting. Sarah served as a staff accountant at NanoDynamics, Inc. for 2 years while at Daemen. She is a resident of Buffalo.

Jenny Steele originally joined us in 2007 as an assistant in our administrative department and has made the transition to our professional accounting team as a staff accountant. Jenny graduated from Canisius College with an MBA in Accounting in May 2009. She currently lives in Buffalo.

We also welcome Sarah Sorrentino to our administrative team serving as HR/Accounting Administration Assistant. Sarah has over 7 years of previous administrative, bookkeeping, and management support experience - most recently coming from RealtyUSA where she provided administrative support to their marketing department. Welcome to Sarah!
